

To all students of the School of Science and the Graduate School of Science

We would like to inform you about the implementation policy of the classes (major subjects) of the School of Science and the Graduate School of Science in the first semester of 2022.

As we informed on the website, classes of the School of Science and the Graduate School of Science will basically be conducted by face-to-face, with the utmost consideration to prevent the spread of the infection.

For the details on how to conduct classes, please check the information from each department office and the Moodle / syllabus of each class subject.

Class schedule of the first semester (spring・summer), 2022, will be posted on the website of the School of Science and the Graduate School of Science on March 22 (Tuesday).

Please note that the method of conducting classes may be changed depending on the situation of the spread of the COVID-19 infection in the future.
